

British Values at JTR

Individual liberty	Democracy	Mutual respect & tolerance	Rule of law
Children are encouraged to make good choices about their play following their interests Children have the choice to sign up to a range of after school clubs – following their interests Strong anti-bullying culture and stereotypes challenged Anti-bullying week activities Anti-bullying assemblies Children across school have key roles and resp. Assemblies focussed around acceptance	School council Eco reps Librarians Playground pals Office angels All the above voted for democratically Voting as a class for their story book choice Assemblies on democracy	Ethos across school focusses upon mutual respect Culturally rich and diverse curriculum Celebrating festivals (Diwali, Holi, Christmas, Chinese New Year) Family box Faith leaders invited into school Strong RE curriculum focussing on Judaism & Christianity Diversity week Assemblies on mutual respect	Simple three school rules School expectations are taught from Nursery Restorative practice Eco rules Playtime equipment rules Visits from police in the autumn term Visits from fire brigade/ ambulance service in spring Assemblies on rule of law