Comments made by a variety of parents/carers on their returned survey:

Such an amazing school who always helps my child.

Amazing support!

Amazing staff they all have the children's best interests and help/ encourage the children to aim high! My children struggled when they first started school on leaving whoever brought him but now (although he first day back after a holiday can be a bit upsetting for him before arriving), he really enjoys school. He tells us in detail about what he has learnt and what he has done at school. He has really improved academically.

My child just loves school, we often have tears during the holidays because he wants to be back!

My son is very happy at this school. Everyone is welcoming and staff have the best interests of my son at heart and it is clear that his wellbeing is very important to everyone he comes into contact with. I know who to go to for help and that they will listen and offer guidance. Thank you!

I always recommend this school to anyone. The school has always supported myself and my child with anything. Everyone has supported my child with her confidence.

My child loves being in school he has made good friends and he always has a positive comment when he comes home. He likes to expand his learning when he comes home and tells me and his dad what he has learnt that day.

My child is happy at school and with the things he is learning.

My child has come on so well at this school and learns a wide variety of things. School trips have been amazing and I would 100% recommend this school. Cannot thank you enough!

Thank you, really happy with my child's progress.

My child loves being at JTR and is always happy to come to school. As a parent I have no concerns with my child's learning/ school. She is making friends and having fun and always mentions the staff which makes me happy.

Such a good school. My child loves to come to school everyday. They share all learning, involve parents, make it fun for the child and support in any way needed. Very impressed and would highly recommend.

The school and all the staff have always had my children's best interests at heart. Parents are kept well informed and the communication is second to none. Although Miss Booth is relatively new to school, she has done an amazing job and I can tell that she knows my child well and helps him push to achieve what she knows he can. I will be sad when my child leaves the schools as it has been an absolute pleasure having had both my children at this school. Thank you to everyone at JTR.

My child absolutely loves Parrot class. The confidence she has gained is outstanding. Staff show a real interest in what we get up to outside of school. Very happy with her journey at JTR so far.

My child has come a long way since joining JTR and is fully supported with her additional needs. The communication from the school and teachers is excellent.

Very happy with how far my child has come.

Very happy with the school as a whole.

Fantastic school so proud of my child's development with you all here. You all do a wonderful job and I cannot thank you enough.
