- Being a School Governor can be a fantastic way to show you care.
- No qualifications are needed.
- Enthusiasm and a passion for the children and community here at JTR, is all that is needed!

Find out a little more about becoming a School Governor

As a volunteer Parent Governor, you will:

- Attend between 6-9 meetings per year
- Meetings are from 4:00pm on a Monday
- Be part of a friendly team of other School Governors
- Share your views
- Get to know school better
- Take part in online training to develop your Governance skills
- Meet with a staff link member who will share with you everything they have been working on, so you have a deeper understanding
- Be provided with plenty of support and guidance whilst you settle in
